Professional Summary: Has a background in law with extensive experience of legal service in renewable natural resources and the corporate sector ranging from working in the Ministry of Agriculture and Livestock (MoAL) to Druk Holding & Investments (DHI). Has sat on the Boards of some of key public sector companies during the transition from the Ministry of Finance to DHI, with regular participation in Board Tender Committees for major construction projects and procurement rule reviews.
Developed a strong foundation in dispute resolution, contract law, and arbitration through the provision of corporate legal services to DHI and its subsidiaries, including company formation, contract drafting, negotiation, deal structuring, and transboundary investments. Recently completed arbitration certification and training with the Bhutan Alternative Dispute Resolution Centre, strengthening interest in commercial, civil, and construction disputes. This experience is complemented by an MBA, enhancing the ability to understand and resolve complex commercial disputes. Seeks opportunities to serve as an arbitrator to gain practical experience in the arbitration field.
